

UG Tax Increases Destroying Progress

Mayor Joe Reardon has been quietly waiting to sneak out of the neighborhood he promised to improve when he became Mayor of Wyandotte County. So quietly he even listed his house with a Lee Wood Realtor!

The lights were dark and it was a vacation weekend and so shazzam it was time to bolt and get out before anyone noticed that the tax bill was now due on the property. The Mayor was given a preferential tax status on his house and yet he continued to pretend like he cared about the neighborhood. Then one morning the neighbors woke up and there was no more Joe.

Now Reardon has turned his eyes west and gets a sweet heart deal, with another Johnson County Realtor who also sold Hays his house. Now He and Hays can laugh together while they smugly rape, rob and pillage the citizens they are sworn to assist. Now they can truly keep it in the Hood, the JOCO Hood Baby. "Die WYCO - Die."

Hopefully the Neighborhood has figured out the trick was on them.
